

Private company "StiroFert" Ltd.

based in Vrbas, Sivč Jovgena bb, the market offers several new products during the last three years , used to identify

more than 30,000

m

2

,
at about 40

establishments.

All feedback

about the convenience

, ease

and speed of construction of this system

are positive.

Also

the conditions

of exploitation

of finished

buildings,

both in

winter

and in summer

,
are positive and

above all expectations.

The author of these new products that are patented in R. Serbia and some countries (EU,

Brazil

, Mexico

,
USA

, Russia

, UAE

...),

Dr.

Milan

Kekanović

of Civil Engineering in Subotica
, under whose control
and supervision
performs a complete
production and use

The founder and owner of Mr. Miodrag Kustudić who for several years living in Spain, where the application of these new products become significant.

New products are absolutely StiroFert companies trendy with today's way of building where they are in the forefront of energy saving, ecology and acceptable price and speed of construction.

StiroFert structures, depending on the range and height, are lighter than 100-300kg/m<sup>2</sup> compared with existing systems
Slab Formwork