

light opening between walls from 8 to 10 meters with bearing capacity at one or both directions for public, industrial and private multi-level buildings and superstructures with minimum shores in the process of mounting (distance between shores is 2,5 meter) for rigidity, channels are reinforced with space truss.

Plan supporting the construction phase with the central camber struts compared to the end:

